M'KINLEY ALARMED OVER WIFE

President May Out Trip
Owing to Mrs. Mc-Kinley's Illness.

(Special to The Evening World.)
SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.—President McKinley is very much worried over the illness of Mrs. McKinley, who was hurried here quite prostrated.
A consultation of physicians was held at noon, but the report was not made public.
Mrs. McKinley is suffering from acute nervousness, and the concern of the President shows that her condition gives cause for alarm.
IT IS CERTAIN THAT PRESIDENT MCKINLEY IS CONSIDERING NOT ONLY CUTTING HIS NORTH-WESTERN TRIP, BUT OF RETURNING TO WASHINGTON IMMEDIATELY.
For several hours to-day a special train was held in waiting to carry the President to San José to attend a reception there, but Mr. McKinley remained at his wife's side until the doctors assured him that there was a slight change for the better in her condition.
Secretary Cortelyou's bulletin issued early to-day "as not reassuring, the wording of it leaving considerable to speculation. It reads:
"Mrs. McKinley rested well during the night and this morning was quite as comfortable as her physicians expected her to be."
Mrs. McKinley is at the residence of Henry T. Scott, and six physicians are in attendance on her.
Secretary Cortelyou stated to-day that even if Mrs. McKinley recovered sufficiently to continue the return trip by way of the northwest she would not, under any circumstances, engage in any of the social functions arranged for the party, but will remain as quiet as possible.
Mrs. McKinley had been ill ever since leaving New Orleans, and yesterday morning she agreed to follow the suggestion of Mr. Scott and come to this city ahead of the scheduled time.
The journey from Del Monte, 167 miles, was made in three hours and a half in a special train consisting of a locomotive, the combination baggage and smoking car Atlantic, and the private car Olympia, all part of the equipment of the Presidential special train. With Mr. and Mrs. McKinley were Miss Barber, the President's niece; Dr. Rixey, Mrs. McKinley's physician; Secretary Cortelyou and Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Scott.

TWO DEAD IN TRAIN WRECK.
Mail Clerk and Fireman of Chicago
Faint "All the Victims."
NEW ORLEANS, May 12.—Spreading rails caused the southbound Illinois Central fast mail from Chicago to jump the track to-day on a curve near Hazelhurst, thirty miles south of Jackson. Two persons were killed and two were injured.
The dead were: C. E. Pose, of Fulton, Ky., mail clerk, and Thomas Lee, a fireman. Those injured were: Gus Nelson, engineer, and M. R. Stappen, an assistant mail clerk.

HAY SPEAKS FOR M'KINLEY.
WATSONVILLE, Cal., May 12.—The members of the Cabinet left Del Monte on schedule time to-day, in accordance with the agreement reached before the departure of the President and Mrs. McKinley for San Francisco. The original itinerary between Del Monte and San Francisco will be followed. Secretary of State Hay will represent the President.

The members of the Cabinet are anxious about Mrs. McKinley's illness. But they know her recuperative powers and believe that a week of quiet may restore her to her normal condition.
Pajaro was the first stop to-day. The train remained there ten minutes and a crowd was in waiting. Secretary Hay briefly explained the cause of the President's absence, but made no speech.
Several little children carried roses into the train for the ladies of the Cabinet. The train left the main line here for the trip to Santa Cruz.

TOLD IN TABLOIDS

BRENNER SUCCEEDS MELODY.—Jacob Brenner was to-day appointed Commissioner of Jurors for Kings County to succeed William E. Melody, four Republican Justices of the Appellate Court signing. The two Democratic Justices refused to do so.

MURPHY RISES TO JEROME'S BAIT.—Commissioner Murphy wrote a snappy letter to Justice Jerome to-day asking for information regarding the Justice's allegations that a ransomed man said he couldn't get promotion because he couldn't pay the price. Jerome wrote back that the statement had been made to him.

CROWD STARED AT DYING WOMAN.—Alice Bird, a middle-aged woman, fell on the sidewalk at Fifth avenue and Twenty-seventh street this afternoon. A crowd gathered and gaped at her. Dr. Trehan was passing on an ambulance, jumped off and revived the woman, who managed to give her name. She died in Bellevue Hospital without again regaining consciousness. Heart failure was the cause.

DEATH BEFORE LOSING JOB.—Thomas Thompson, a railroad engineer, of West Richmond, S. I., was run over and killed by a train near his home to-day. It is thought that Thompson threw himself in front of the train, as he was dependent on the prospect of losing his job.

TWELVE GAMBLERS INDICTED.—The Grand Jury to-day indicted these men for keeping gambling houses: William Campbell, Henry Hughes, William Stiles, George Weinstein, Frank Jones, John Daniels, Bernard O'Neil, Edward Low, John Madden, Nathan Hudson and others still at large.

DOVER, Me., May 12.—News has been received here from Shoreley that the farm-house of Wesley Allen there was burned during the night and that Mr. Allen, his wife, fourteen-year-old daughter and another person at present unknown were burned to death. POLO GROUNDS, May 12.—If ginger will keep Manager Davis's youthful hunters close to the top of the list they are good for a first division position all season. Inspired by their recent string of victories the rejuvenated Giants pranced out on the lot for preliminary practice to-day as full of vim as a lot of two-year-olds going to the post for a stake event.

The new talent in the infield, Ganzel, Nelson and Strang, performed all sorts of fancy stunts in the warm-up session, and their gingery work was warmly applauded by the fans.

Hanlon Hunts the Hoodoo.
Foxy Ned Hanlon is making a desperate effort to get rid of the hoodoo he is sure the champions have run up.

priest his fellow players, as they did the fans.
Champions Need Their Captain.
Kelley will play first to-day. When he is in the game the Superbas put more hustle into their work and their team play is better.
Hanlon's next move is to make a shift in the batting order. Now Willie Keeler, the champions' featherweight, right fielder, who grabs his bat in the middle and meets all sorts of shots, except those dealt out by Christie Mathewson, with a snappy jerk that nets him many a base hit in a year's play, formerly he sat at the bat for the Superbas. He has been moved down to third place. Sheppard and Kelley batting ahead of him. Hanlon hopes the new combination will prove a winner to-day.

Dummy Taylor to Pitch.
Dummy Taylor, the Giants' silent twirler, will make an extra effort to land his team in second place to-day. Taylor was the club's winning pitcher last season, but he has not yet struck his gait this spring.
Billy Donovan, the young boxman who has shown gift edged twirling since Hanlon annexed him to his husky corps of pitchers, will probably be selected to curve 'em over for the Superbas.
"Say, Davis, why don't you work Mathewson every day? Ask a fan over by the clubhouse before the game began. 'He's husky enough, ain't he?' And he draws the crowds, too."
"If he was in every day or even every second day we'd win the pennant sure."
Davis Nursing "Matty."
"Matty" will only work in his regular turn," said Davis. "That's all we can ask of any pitcher. If we worked him overtime he'd wear out in a hurry." Some one suggested to Davis that it

SAYS A MAYOR IS WIFE'S ALLY.
Dr. Campbell Charges Conspiracy in Her Suit.
The suit for divorce brought by Mrs. Helen B. Campbell against her husband, Dr. Robert M. Campbell, a prominent Buffalo physician, was set for trial May 27 by Justice Mattox in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to-day.
Dr. Campbell claims that the charges made are the result of a conspiracy by which his wife expects to secure a separation.
Mrs. Campbell is living at present at Hotel St. George, Brooklyn, and is said to be worth a million or more in her own right. She has been prominent in social events in Buffalo.
In her application Mrs. Campbell names Miss Cora Dornan, of David City, Neb., as correspondent. She names Oct. 3, 1900, as the date upon which her husband's offense was committed.
Dr. Campbell, in his answer, states that the charges are false and that a semblance of truth is given to them by the fact that he was drawn into circumstances which might seem suspicious through the connivance of his wife and the Mayor of David City, whom he now believes to have been acting as Mrs. Campbell's lawyer.
He states that he went to David City to purchase some property in the summer of last year and met the Mayor. Letters from this official induced him to return, and he was introduced to Miss Dornan by the Mayor.
He also charges that stories were employed to warn him, but denies that he was guilty of any wrong-doing.

against within the last week. He wired Capt. Joe Kelley yesterday to come back at once, even if he couldn't see out of either of his bad "lamps."
Since the Brooklynites' big first baseman has been out of the game the silenced crew of continuous performance pennant-winners has developed an alarming losing streak. They were not weak at the initial sack, for Duke Farrell, despite his 220-odd pounds, felled the position like a lightweight, making one- and stuns and lolly jumps that sur-

THREE WOMEN IN A MAD RUNAWAY.

'Bus Containing the Misses Carlisle Nearly Wrecked In Broadway.

A runaway horse drawing a Pennsylvania Railroad bus in which were three young women created great excitement on Broadway, near Forty-second street, this afternoon. The driver was unseated, a pedestrian had a leg broken and the three occupants of the vehicle had the life almost frightened out of them. The bus was carrying Misses Jessie, Florence and Laurie Carlisle from No. 123 West Forty-fifth street to the West Twenty-third street ferry. Turning into Broadway from Forty-fifth street the horse took the bit in its teeth and tore down toward Forty-second street. Patrick Fitzgerald, the driver, was thrown from his seat at Forty-fourth street, but escaped with a few bruises.

The three women clung to their seats and Miss Jessie Carlisle bravely made an attempt to reach the reins. In front of the Hotel Cadillac, Ernest Elliot, of No. 321 West Twenty-eighth street, was knocked down by the horse, sustaining a fracture of the left leg. He was removed to Roosevelt Hospital.

At Forty-second street the horse narrowly missed a crowded Boulevard car and just grazed a horse cab. The maddened animal was finally stopped by Policeman John Byrne, who leaped for the horse's head, grabbed the bit and was dragged several hundred yards before the horse's speed was checked.

FATAL CRASH ON COLUMBUS AVE.
The installation of electricity on the Columbus avenue system to-day was marked by two accidents, one of which will result in the death of a man, the other blocking the road for a half hour.

RIVER STEAMER A TOTAL WRECK.
City of Paducah Sank
and Three Lives
Were Lost.

(Special to The Evening World.)
ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 12.—The Mississippi steamer City of Paducah sank at Brunkhorst Landing, sixty miles south of St. Louis, and is a total loss. Three persons were drowned so far as known. Mrs. Mabel Gardner, of St. Louis; one other passenger, whose name is not known, and Watchman Messenger were those lost.
Twenty negroes, all deckhands, are missing, but it is thought they may have swam ashore.

The boat struck a snag as she was backing out from Brunkhorst at 9 o'clock last night and sank in twenty-five feet of water.
There was a panic among the twenty passengers, but the officers of the boat worked calmly and all but those already lost to get ashore safely.
The steamer City of Chester passed under the bridge early to-day and took the passengers and crew aboard and headed for this city.
The City of Paducah was valued at $200,000. She was on her way from St. Louis to Watrous, Ala.
